Big Program For Congress Framed By Pres. Harding

PLANS TO PUSH CONGRESS, THEN GIVE THE COUNTRY A LONG REST

By LAURENCE M. BENEDICT.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Nov. 15.—Congress, when it comes back for the special session scheduled to start Nov. 20, or the regular session in December, will have a swift, hard grind ahead, if it is to make good on the program being laid out for it by President Harding.

If it makes good, its reward will come next March 4, with the announcement that Congress can go home on that day and remain away from Washington until the start of the regular session in December, 1923—a vacation of nine months.

If the program is carried out, the country next summer will have a real rest from the national legislative body, for virtualy the first time since before the war. President Harding is most anxious that this "rest" be given. He believes the country is tired of having Congress in almost continuous session.

But Congress will have to "cut out the bunk" and get strictly down to business if it is to earn the vacation. There is plenty of room for doubting that all the important legislation on the President's program can be disposed of by March 4. There are the big appropriation measures, which must be passed. They alone could easily take up all the time unless Congress sits on unusual speed.

Next in importance, from the White House viewpoint, comes the ship subsidy bill. President Harding, who considers the subsidy the most important piece of domestic legislation thus far advanced by the administration, is believed to be in a mood to insist that definite and final action on the measure be taken at the next session. If the President demands final consideration of the subsidy, the plans for a Congressional vacation may go on the rocks right there. It is believed now that the shipping bill could be passed in the House, under a special rule limiting debate and prohibiting amendments, but in the Senate its opponents could hold up the measure for months if they were of the mind to do so. And indications are they are of that mind.

The Railroad Legislation.

Then there is the question of revising the Esch-Cummins act. President Harding notified Congress this summer that he would expect legislation this winter safeguarding the country against a recurrence of the big railroad strike. The problem wouldn't be so big if the White House and administration forces were in harmony over what remedial legislation should be passed. But they are, apparently, as far apart as the poles.

The big point of difference is the Railroad Labor Board. President Harding wants the board retained, moved from Chicago to Washington and given more power. Most Senators and House members want the board abolished, believing its creation was a blunder.

Besides this, there will be strong and organized demand for a general revision of the entire transportation act. The farm bloc will drive for lower freight rates and will seek any kind of legisation that would accomplish that. They may wind up by demanding an entire new valuation of the railroads, which bloc leaders charge are now overvalued by mil-

ANTI-STRIKE LAWS WILL BE PRESSED BY SENATOR CUMMINS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—An anti-strike bill will be introduced in the House very soon after the reconvening of Congress on November 20, Senator Cummins let it be known today. Senator Cummins is chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission Committe and will be insistent on this bill being the keystone of the industrial legislatum program and he will urge President Harding to get behind the move. Republican members of Congress profess to being amazed at the suggestion of Senator Cummins, declaring it is the poorest time for such a proposal to come before the country and in view of the fact that there is so little machinery set up to protect the rights of labor there is little likelihood of it meeting with approval.

GOVERNOR VISITS DOROTHY GORDON IN INSANE ASYLUM

Boston, Mass., Nov. 155.—Governor Alvin T. Fuller, acting governor of Massachusetts in the absence of Governor Cox, today visited the McClain Insane Hospital at Waverly where Dorothy Gordon, an heiress, is alleged to have been committed six months ago on trumped up charges of insanity. Fuller came on a mission of inspection and for the purpose of investigating the charges being made by the uncle of the girl that she was illegally committeed and is being held illegally. The visit of the Lieutenant Governor is believed to be the first step in a rigid investigation of the institution and the now celebrated case and the removal of William F. Jardine the girl's guardian who is responsible for her being there.

The girl was visited today by her Uncle John Gardiner who is making the attempt to free her and who has started removal proceedings against the guardian.

RETURN JUDGES ARE WAITING ON CENTRE CO. TO WAKE UP

Backwoods District Has Appointed No Deserving Republican to Perform Arduous Duties.

ALL OTHERS HERE

The Congressional and Senatorial Return Judges from the 23d Congressional and 34th Senatorial District were scheduled to meet in Clearfield yesterday for the purpose of computing the Congressional and Senatorial votes cast at the recent election. When 12 o'clock came the representatives of Clearfield, Cameron and McKean counties were on hand ready to discharge their duties, but nobody from Centre put in an appearance and the judges present were compelled to mark time until it was possible to penetrate Centre county's backwoods and get the ear of authority to see what the trouble was. That was no easy job either.

Telephones Unknown.

County officials over in Centre have become so economical that they have done away with telephones in the Court House, official communication now being carried on with the outside world by "word of mouth," each fellow passing the news or order along to his neighbor by means of his leather lungs.

One Official Awake.

Prothonotary Ralston and Commissioners' Clerk Norris finally got their heads together and bribed the telephone exchange girl at Bellefonte to send a messenger to the Court House for some one in authority who could have Centre county's lapse repaired. A boy was sent up to the temple of justice and soon reported back that he had found Prothonotary Roy Wilkinson to be the only person awake at the Court House and he said he would come to the phone if he could find somebody to stay in the office to keep the flies off the slumbering deputy. He was told Roy would do and pretty soon Wilkinson was at the other end of the phone.

He was asked if Centre county officials realized that county was a part of Pennsylvania and was governed by its laws, election and otherwise. Roy yawningly acknowledged that he really believed it was, but would make sure by asking Judge Quigley, as "Quig" ought to know.

The Clearfield end of the conversation was not so sure of that, but instructed the Prothonotary to have Judge Quigley look into the matter and if he found that Centre county was really part and parcel of this grand old Keystone Commonwealth and amenable to her laws, to have him kindly appoint a "deserving" Republican as Return Judge and have him come to Clearfield and assist in computing the Congressional and Senatorial votes in the two districts in order that Bill Swoope and his cousin Bill Betts might be officially proclaimed the winners for Congress and State Senate respectively.

Judge Quigley is evidently not sure of his geography yet, because the local officials are still looking in vain for that Centre county Return Judge. It is too darn bad, too; because those Centre county Republicans (and Democrats, too) are all so hungry for office—any "old offis," at that.

"RESOURCEFUL," TO SAY THE LEAST, WAS THIS CROWD OF FELLOWS WHO STOLE TO BUILD UP THEIR FLIVVER

A bunch of young men from the Houtzdale region lined up before Judge Bell Monday on their separate pleas of guilty to larceny charges. The bunch centered around Mike Andrejko, who is somewhat of an amateur electrician. They were getting away with it in fine style, too, according to their own stories, until Corporal Billy Novick of the State Police horned in on their operations. Billy says Andrejko is a sort of electrical wizard, but the gang which operated with and for him might safely be styled "electrical buzzards" because they scavengered and salvaged everything in the electrical line within the scope of their migrations about the community.

The gang was made up of Andrejko, Thorval Munson, Julius Sklar, Thomas Banas, Casmir Emala, William L. Corre and Michael A. Ernest. They possessed an old Ford and while out driving one day smashed a wheel.

Neighbor Sam Gallagher had a new Henry he was not using at the time so the committee on spare parts and things swooped down on Sam's garage and "borrowed" one of the wheels off his Ford. Sam got mad about it, too. They also took a pump along to supply air when same ran low. A couple of storage batteries from a locomotive belonging to the Red Top Coal Company were also sacrificed on the altar of Andrejko's electrical genius, as was an Exide battery from a Hudson car belonging to C. W. Isenberg.

After hearing the stories of the young men and the plea of their attorney John B. McGrath, Esq., Judge Bell gave the gang a good lecture, imposed a $50 fine on each, directed the restoration of the stolen property and suspended further sentence during good behavior.

NATIONAL CHAIRMAN OF RED CROSS PUTS PEP INTO CAMPAIGN

Makes Statement to the 200,000 Workers Who Have Started to Enroll Members Everywhere.

REVIEWS ITS WORK

Washington, D. C. Nov. 15.—In a message to the 200,000 men and women who have just started their task of enrolling "every American everywhere" on the roster of the American Red Cross, Judge John Barton Payne, Chairman of that organization, states:

"The Red Cross is a mighty army of red blooded American men and women, banded together to wage incessant battle against disease, disaster and suffering.

"You are the recruiting officers for this army. As such it is both your duty and privilege to give to every American the opportunity to consecrate himself anew to service under the banner of the Red Cross.

"We are now engaged in the stupendous task of relieving the misery of more than half a million men, women and children who have been driven out of Asia Minor and Eastern Thrace by the Greco-Turkish war. When this great international disaster came, the eyes of the American people turned as with one accord to American Red Cross as the agency through which they would send succor to the suffering.

"There was never a moment's doubt as to what organization would be called upon to render aid. The Red Cross is proud that it could and did answer "Read" when the emergency call came.

"From now until Thanksgiving Day you are to call the roll among your neighbors and friends, and they too, will be proud to answer "Read." By their affirmative answer to the Roll Call they will be given their support to the "Greatest Mother in the World' they will be pledging their allegiance once more to the greatest army of mercy in the history of humanity.

"The disaster in the Near East is only one of the many grim tragedies which the Red Cross is meeting. Others are taking place every day of the year, and any day may be just around the corner from your own homes. They may be less dramatic; they may not find a place on the front pages of your newspapers, but they are none the less worthy of our service.

"The Red Cross, as the great volunteer emergency army, never halts; never sleeps; never takes a vacation. Its work of mercy goes on night and day in every village, town and city of the country. It is your organization always ready for service, and always at the call of humanity.

With your aid let us make the response to this Roll Call unanimous."

Lloyd George's Test Comes At Polls Today

By J. W. T. MASON
(Written for the United Press.)

Voting began this morning in Great Britain for re-election of a new House of Commons. The polls will close at 8 p. m. and the result will be known some time tomorrow. The balloting is secret.

The votes will be counted in each constituency immediately after the closing of the polls and the successful candidates will be named to the waiting crowds. It is the British custom for all candidates in each constituency to hear the results together and for the unsuccessful ones personally to congratulate the victor.

There will be 615 seats in the new Commons. This is 96 less than in the old parliament, due to the termination of the south of Ireland representation, following the establishment of the Irish Free State. The protestant north of Ireland, however, will still be represented in the Commons because the Ulstermen have refused to abandon their intimate imperial relationship. North Ireland has 13 constituencies, England has 492, Scotland 74 and Wales 36.

Fifty-seven seats, including Lloyd George's, are not being contested. For the remaining 558 seats there are 1,266 candidates in the field. They are divided into six groups: Conservatives, or Bonar Law Unionists; National Liberals, or Lloyd George's party; Independent Liberals or Asquith's party; Labor party, or moderate wing of the workingmen; Independent Labor party, or radical working class supporters; Independents, embracing all who hold allegiance to none of the foregoing.

About thirty women are among the candidates, headed by Lady Astor, and including Lay Wintringham, Lady Cooper, Lady Howard Stepney, and Mrs. Arthur Boutchier, the actress.

Million More Voters.

BONAR LAW APPEARS CERTAIN TO WIN THE ELECTIONS TODAY

London, England, Nov. 15.—Bonar Law appeared to be certain of victory today after five hours of voting in the metropolitan district and four houses in the outlying districts of the country. It is believed sure that the new Premier will have a majority in the house of commons. Although foggy weather predominates, unless all signs fail the full returns will show the Conservative with a lead of at least ten seats. The present makeup is as follows: Conservative 42; Asquith Liberals 6, Lloyd George Liberals 4; Labor 4, Irish Nationalists 1.

FRESH EARTHQUAKES CONTINUE TO TAKE TOLL IN SO. AMERICA

Santiago, Chile, Nov. 15.—Twelve prisoners being used as laborers to clear away the debris after the quake of last Saturday were killed today and a squad of soldiers buried when the walls collapsed under a fresh series of earth tremors which were felt throughout the entire Capiapo region of Chile today. The prisoners and soldiers were searching among the ruins for bodies when the quake of today occurred. The falling walls completely covered the workmen and soldiers and probably all were killed. No doubt todays' tremors resulted in many deaths in other nearby localities with which there is no method of communication as yet

BODY OF DUBOIS CIVIL WAR VETERAN FOUND ON HIGHWAY

DuBois, Nov. 15.—So far as meagre details obtainable are concerned, the finding of the lifeless remains of A. J. Hetrick, a well known Civil War veteran of DuBois, along a road outside of Brookville, there is an element of mystery prevailing that may require an investigation to solve. The remains of Mr. Hetrick were discovered late yesterday afternoon on a road leading from Brookville, and so far as relatives were advised late last night the cause of his death is not known.

Mr. Hetrick makes his home with his daughter, Mrs. Hayes Price, of East Weber avenue, and a few days ago stated that he was going to make a trip to Brookville, partly on business and partly on pleasure. Yesterday morning Mr. Hetrick arose, dressed himself and left the house without saying a word to his relatives. It was surmised that he had gone to Brookville, but nothing was known of his whereabouts until th word came of his sudden death.

CRAZY KID STUNT SAY OFFICIALS OF CONKLIN MARRAGE

Binghamton, Nov. 14.—"A crazy kid stunt" is the way Humane Officer Koerbel characterized the marriage of John H. Cregier, seventeen, to his sister, Elizabeth, nineteen. The marriage was performed on November 7 by the Rev. E. R. Evans, of Conklin. There will be no prosecution, Koerbel said.

The couple separated after the marriage and the girl returned to New York, the boy remaining here.

Immediate steps will be taken, the officer said, to have the marriage annulled.

Cregier gave his address at Lawton avenue, this city, which is the home of Miss Elsie Teeple, who brought the boy up since the death of his mother fourteen years ago.

He was twenty-two, the boy swore and gave his occupation as a shipping clerk.

The girl gave her name as Elizabeth M. Hafner, the name of her adopted father in New York City.

BROTHER TESTIFIES AGAINST BROTHER IN MURDER TRIAL

Pittsburg, Nov. 15.—Speaking in a low voice, his lips twitching at times, William C. Johnson of Trotter, Fayette county, today testified in court against his brother Elmer Johnson, accused of participating in the holding up of a garage on Frankstown Road with two other men at which time the garage proprietor was shot and killed. He testified that Elmer came home after the shooting and told of how he and two other men had killed a man in a garage in Pittsburg.

A committee has been named to confer with Secretary Wallace of the Agricultural Department, Attorney General Dougherty and the Federal Trade Commission to learn the attitude of the government towards such a merger. The assets of the five concerns are given as $1.097.107,456 and the combined capital is $394,832,000.

INTERRUPT DEBATING SOCIETY OF "BRIMSTONE CORNER" IN MIDST OF DISCUSSION ON EINSTEIN THEORY

"Brimstone Corner" was the scene of a police raid late last night which resulted in quite a bit of commotion but the "captains of Jacks and Kings" were tipped off by said commotion and the Argus-eyed lookout and the officers of the law had to be content with a "water haul."

The police have been watching for some time a second floor room near the end of the Second street bridge and last night their "plainclothes" watchman informed them a game was in progress. A descent was made on the place and several nooks and crannies looked into before the alleged "poker store" was reached.

When the alleged gaming place was finally reached an octette of "near scientists" were found grouped about a green baize-covered table. But not a card, chip or other evidence of gambling was in sight while the gang was engaged in an animated discussion of the Einstein theory, one side contending that the photographic plates recently made of the recent solar ecclipse at Wollal, Australia, would show Prof. Einstein and his theory to be right, while the other fellows were equally as positive that they would show the Professor to be talking through his chapeau.

Wouldn't that jar you?

Mrs. Greenlee has returned to her home at Toppinish. Wash., after an extended visit in Clearfield.

HARDING'S VIEWS ON THE BONUS NOT CHANGED BY VOTES

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—President Harding, although the bonus forces won several votes in the recent election and several anti-bonus officials were defeated on that issue, has let it be known that his views have not changed and that the results of the election will not influence his course in the future. He directed a spokesman today to make this plain.

CARVING SETS

When the time comes that you sit down to carve the Thanksgiving turkey, will you do it with ease or will you have to exert every atom of strength to carve the national bird simply because your carving knife is so dull that you can't make it go through?

With one of the sets that we are showing you'll have a knife that will carve easily and you'll really enjoy that task that you usually try to get out of.

Drop in and see the different styles of the sets. There are pearl handled sets, stag handled sets and ivory handled sets. Then there are silver handled sets.

lions of dollars. The bloc will also try to repeal the section giving the Interstate Commerce Commission the power to fix freight rates on commerce within the States.

Unless administration leaders succeed in spreading oil on the troubled waters, the attempt to enact new industrial legislation will drag debate out for weeks and send glimmering the chances for a get-away March 4.

Soldier and Farm Blocs.

Besides the legislation the administration wants Congress to tackle, there will be movements from every direction to further clog the legislative wheels. The farm bloc will be trying to extend the credit facilities for farmers. The soldier bloc will be demanding action on the legislative proposals put forth by the American Legion convention at New Orleans. The farm bloc again, with the Democrats from the solid South, will push a new drive for acceptance of the Ford offer for Muscle Shoals. The latter is a losing fight and for that reason will take up even more time than otherwise.

In addition to all of this, many individual Senators and Congressmen will be seeking to get some of their "pet" legislative theories enacted into law before the proposed long recess.

It looks like more than an even bet that next summer will find Congress doing business at the old stand, as usual.

new register, which adds nearly a million voters to the number entitled to vote at the last previous election, in 1918. Eight million women will cast their ballots today for their second parliamentary election since their enfranchisement. The total number of persons entitled to vote approximates 22,000,000. At the 1918 election, only fifty per cent. of the registered voters went to the polls. This was largely due to the fact that 106 constituencies were uncontested.

The chief interest in today's contest, apart from the effort of the Conservatives to secure an absolute majority over all other parties, is in the showing that will be made by the Labor Party. Membership in British trades unions declined last year from 8,500,000 to 6,800,000, due partly to unemployment and partly to desertions by women workers.

There were 76 labor members in the last parliament. The labor leaders hope to secure 200 seats at today's elections and they will be greatly disappointed if they don't have at least 150. Should the number be less than 100, the result will mean a violent turn on the part of the British voters against the radical platform of the laborites. If labor approximates 200 victories, probably nothing can prevent a labor government coming into power at the next following election.

Lloyd George's partisans are not expected to be numerous in the new House of Commons. If the Lloyd George liberals hold the balance of power, it will be surprising. To regain his political prestige Lloyd George will probably have to form an amalgamation with another party. Whether he will unite with the Asquith Liberals or with the C tives he doubtless doesn't know yet himself.

CHARGED WITH STEALING FROM FREIGHT CARS

Information was made before 'Squire Joseph F. John yesterday by a New York Central detective against John Doll and Joe King, two young men who reside at Munson, charging them with stealing merchandise from freight cars. The alleged crimes were committed in August and October last, the cars broken into being left on the siding at Munson station.

Constable T. B. Reilley arrested both young men yesterday afternoon and each gave bail for December court.

DRINK LOTS OF MILK BUT BE SURE IT'S SAFE

When you take the chances of drinking milk that isn't safe you overcome all the good things that you do when you drink milk as a body builder. For if you should, all your system will get some of the deadly germs that might lurk in milk that isn't safe, you won't get the good from the elements that are in the milk.

But when you drink plenty of milk and milk that has gone through the pasteurization process, you are sure that you will have all the nutriment in the milk plus the assurance that the milk is absolutely safe.

Therefore be sure the milk you drink is safe milk.

Strange things are found in news these days. We noticed in Tuesday's Altoona Tribune an article which was headed "Trolley Car Runs Into Brewery Team." What do you suppose a brewery team would be doing on the road these days—hauling flowers for Andy Volstead's funeral, nebbe.

State Chairman Harry W. Baker appears to have our Republican brethren "hypped." They are talking of paying him a salary of $10,000 per year to remain as State Chairman. Just think what a cinch that would be. Imagine how soft it would be to pull down $10,000 per year for keeping Pennsylvania in the Republican column. This fall's election sure must have thrown a man's size scare into even Pennsylvania Repubs.

Approximately $1,015,000,000 was invested in foreign countries by American citizens during the period of the Government's fiscal year ended June 30, 1922, according to an official compilation by the Department of Commerce.

American dollars are helping finance and reconstruct private industry and governments in nearly every section of the world. They are building tramways in Europe, railroads in China and South America, docks and cotton mills in France and water works systems in South Africa.

The Commerce Department's report represents the total of all loans offered and sold publicly in the United States by foreign governments and private industrial and commercial organizations with foreign citizenship. It shows that nearly ever large city of the world is being financed to greater or less extent by the savings of American investors. Among the cities whose bonds are held by Americans are Paris, Montreal, Berne, Prague, Vienna and Rio de Janeiro.

Prior to the World War the total of foreign capital invested in the United States was greater than American capital invested abroad Early in 1915 American securities owned in Europe began flowing to the United States in payment for heavy purchases of war materials. These were securities issued to build mines, railroads, and great industrial corporations of the West. They were purchased in the period of expansion that began with 1890. Before the United States entered the war almost all of these securities had been bought back by America. Then American dollars in large quantities began flowing abroad for investment.

In 1916 approximately $397,000,000 was invested abroad and in 1919 about $726,000,000. The following year the total was $555,000,000 and in 1921 it grew to $618,000,000.

Rate of investment in the pre-war period is indicated by 1905, when $148,000,000 went abroad.

The Bureau of Mines announces that tests conducted at Bruceton, Pa., indicate the possibility of using wireless waves to communicate with entombed miners.

Thes uccessful working out of a practical method of communication will undoubtedly result in the saving of many livevs following fires and explosions, experts declare.

Many entrapped miners would have been saved in previous disasters, if the rescuers couid have learned quickly the exact location of the men and thec ondition of their imprisonment.

Tests were conducted at the bureau's experimental coal mines at Bruceton in co-operation with the Westinghous Electric and Maufacturing company's KDKA station at Pittsburgh. Preliminary results indicate that electro-magnetic waves may be made to travel through solid strata.

In the Bruceton experimsnts, signals were heard distinctly through fifty feet o coal strata Longer wave lengths are to be used in more advanced experiments, and it is expected that they will be made to travel much greater distances. They suffer less absorption than short waves.

Mine telephones are already in use, but the system is usually deranged by the fire or explosion which traps the miners and, therefore, are seldom useful following disasters.

The preliminary experiments consisted first in receiving signals from without the mine by means of a receiver located inside the mine, then both sending and receiving through strata.

It was found that with a receiving instrument set at a point 100 feet underground, signals from the KDKA station at East Pittsburgh could be heard distinctly. The distance is eighteen miles.

Husband Locked Wife In Room Without Food And Water For Three Days

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 15.—Emaciated and unable to walk withotu assistance, Mrs. Martha Lockard, aged 47, was helped into the court room today to attend the preliminary hearing against her husband who was arrested on charge of the inhuman society. It is alleged that Fred Lockard, her husband, locked her in a room for three days without food and water and at the end of that time passed in a can of sardines, two crackers and some water. Lockard admitted this charge but denied that his cruel treatment was for the purpose of forcing his wife to leave him so he could obtain a divorce and marry another woman.

EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

Tonight, in Trinity church, the opening meeting of the intense revival campaign will inaugurate the special efforts in evangelism by that church. Thursday and Friday nights of this week will be devoted to revival. The meeting is expected to take full swing with Sunday. On that day a Three Church Visitation has been arranged for Methodist men. The first place will be at Eleventh Street, the men of West Side and Trinity going out to that church at three o'clock. There will be a program of four stirring S's—singing, supplications, speeches and singing. Next Sunday being Holy Communion, the meetings of this week will be cumulative. The revival work is the theme of Trinity Methodists, and their hope and desire.

Immediately after the evening service, the Sunday School Board meets and a special meeting of the official board is called by the pastor for one urgent matter, associated with the meetings.

FIREMEN CALLED FOR BURNING FLUE

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common garden Sage and Sulphur Makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and youthful at once

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays, we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair; taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

On every side indications that business and industry are rapidly ascending the grade continue to multiply. For the first time in two years—and for the fifth time in the history of the country—railroads have moved in a single week more than 1,000,000 freight cars loaded with commodities. But for shortage of cars the haulage would be still greater.

Another symptom of industrial prosperity is the fact that unemployment has so far decreased that in certain sections there is an actual shortage both of skilled and unskilled workers, and the Department of Labor is of opinion that the demands of employers in this respect will not be fully met till the first part of next year.

A further proof and guarantee of good times is that the building boom, which has been so phenomenally developed during several months past, still continues and promises to last throughout the winter. There has been practically no seasonal decline such as generally makes itself felt at this time of the year, and all the indications are that in this particular branch of work the record already established during 1922 will be equaled or even exceeded in 1923.

Another and final test is found in the automobile industry. Manufacturers of automobiles have advised the national automobile chamber of commerce that the demand for their output is surprising for this season, and a production record of 2,400 000 cars for the year is confidently expected.

These are all encouraging signs of the times, and tend to confirm the belief that the country has entered on an era of well-nigh unexampled prosperity.

Some of the aristocratic institutions of learning in the East have lately been considering the fellow who works his way through college, with a slightly sneering frown.

Commend us to the method at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio. The five hundred boys and girls there are equally exclusive. You can't go to Antioch unless you do work. Five weeks of labor and five weeks of study—that's the program laid down for themselves by the students.

Every freshman has his expense budget audited by a faculty member, and he is put in touch with the sort of work he wants, and that will make enough to see him through. Some students have arrived at Antioch with $100, and no prospects of any more coming except through their own efforts.

But that didn't mean they were cut by the Greeks and snubbed by the co-eds. Everybody at Antioch is working and studying. Which reminds us to say that whether at Antioch or right here at home, that's what we all ought to be doing—carpenters, insurance men, grocers, bankers and teachers—studying along with our work, and working along with our study Education is just fairly started when a man or woman leaves college. Students at Antioch are fairly on the way to realizing this.

People who fail to put up mail boxes on their houses will not be given carrier mail service, the postoffice department recently warned. Mail slots in the doors are held just as desirable, but some provision for receiving the mail must be made.

Just have a look at your patient postman the next time his regular step is heard on your porch. He has a plentiful load. He must carry it in all weather, and he must be prompt in completing his round.

Not an enviable job, and not overpaid. The Christmas season now approaching means the mailman's hardest work of all the year. How many times have you heard your carrier complain?

Christmas spirit? Why, not all the dreary trudging in the world can take it out of those fellows. They smile when they hand in the mysterious package which bears the seal: "Not to be opened till Christmas." They bother with scribbled writing, and they hustle to see that none of Santa's parcels are delayed.

It is by no means too early to be talking about the Christmas rush. And it is high time we all showed a little advance Christmas spirit by making it as easy as possible for the mailman, by seeing to it that we have a proper place to receive the mail he brings.

WILL OBSERVE TUBERCULOSIS DAY DEC. 3rd.

Harrisburg, Nov. 15.— Tuberculosis day will be observed in the churches December 3 and in the schools December 8 as features of the Christmas Seal sale to fight the White Plague. The plan is set forth by John S. Fisher, Pennsylvania chairman for the Christmas Seal sale, today in the following statement:

"In connection with the Fifteenth Annual Sale of Christmas Seals, it is suggested that Tuberculosis Day be observed in the churches on Sunday, Dec. 3rd, and in the schools on Friday, Dec. 8th. All church and educational workers are vitally interested in the physical, as well as in the intellectual, moral and spiritual well being of our people. It is therefore, appropriate that church and school put forth their best efforts in conserving the health of our citizens Inasmuch as the schools and Sunday schools deal with the welfare of the young people, they furnish an inviting field in the war against tuberculosis.

"The Christmas Seal has become a vital factor in bringing better health and longer life to the people of Pennsylvania. It is the means of preventing tuberculosis and of restoring to health those who have fallen victims to its ravages. The sale and use of the Seals is, therefore, more than a pretty Christmas custom

"We confidently put the case before the pastors, Sunday school superintendents and workers and teachers in our public schools. We earnestly solicit your help and ask you to emphasize on the days above designated the dangers and treatment of tuberculosis to the end that health may be improved and life prolonged, and particularly the part which the Christmas Seal plays in this great effort."

RECEIVED CLASS OF SIXTEEN

Rev. John P. McCurdy received a class of sixteen into full membership at the Sunday morning service at the Sandy Ridge Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday last.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Mrs. C. S. Russell has returned home from a three week's visit in New York, Philadelphia and Chester county. She was accompanied by Mrs Joseph H. Patton, who will be her guest for a few days.

Frank Strunk, who has been residing in Philadelphia for several years past, is home for a visit with home folks.

Among the marriage licenses issued in Pennsylvania in Cumberland Md., on Monday it will be noticed that such a paper was granted to Lee Robert Patterson, of Curwensville and Miss Helen Broska, of Punxsutawney.

P. E Smith has purchased from the B. R. & P. railroad several hundred tons of coal which was dumped from the cars in wreck which occurred at Bridgeport a few weeks ago

There will be a parlor meeting of the Friends Society held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodside South Walnut street, on Friday evening next. Dr. Jenner and a Mr. Thompson, both of Baltimore will be present and address the meeting. All members of the Friends Society and those who are interested in that sect, are cordially invited to be present. Quarterly meeting will be held at Grampian on Sunday afternoon.

Buck deer are numerous in the woods and on the mountain, some rabbit hunters claim. Bears plentiful before the season opened, have suddenly grown scarce. Frank Harley, wife and baby, have out on a hunting camp on Saturday and remained over Sunday. During the time spent there he saw and counted fourteen deer, within half an hour's walk from the camp.

From the North American yesterday we glean this pleasing item "The people of the Clearfield section are gratified over the fact that their local hospital was included in the list of hospitals throughout the United States worthy of special mention as "giving the best of scientific care to their patients." The report was filed at the American college of Surgeons in session in Boston.

The many Curwensville friends of Miss Ruth Thompson were greatly surprised to learn of her marriage which took place last Friday, at the Presbyterian church, Williamsport They wish her good luck all thru her married life.

Plans are being worked out for the holding of a week's educational convevntion in Curwensville, commencing sometime in December and in the Opera House. The American Legion will co-operate with Prof. Norris and the entire school faculty in facilitating this movement and making it a great success. A program will be prepared which not only will be of interest to those who take a part but to every citizen of the town and vicinity. The Progress will have more to say on this subject at a later date

Mr. William Bartelle is wearing a smile on his face almost as large as a half moon, and all because the Stork left at his home on corner of Meadow and Walnut street on Sunday night a fine little daughter.

William Harley, of Clearfield, and one of the hunters that the mountain deer is afraid to cross his path, when he is on the trail, was a Curwensville visitor yesterday. If there is any one man in this county that can shoot a buck ever season that fellow is "Bridle" Harley.

There are of many of Curwensville's boys and girls wandering about the streets these evenings with no place to go in particular, demonstrates the fact more clearly than ever that the town is in need of Community House and such a structure as was talked of being built a year or so ago. The scheme was broached by the Business Mens' Association at that time, but for want of the proper financial encouragement the matter was let go by the board. It is true that the American Legion rooms are left open to the young folks nearly every night in the week, where they are at liberty to gather for social amusements, but a large number of parents object to their sons and daughters congregating there, on account of the rooms being utilized for dancing purposes one or two nights a week. In justice to the Legion boys it can be truthfully said that they will not permit any entertainment in their rooms which are immoral or any thing like it, and the boys and girls would be just as safe there as in their own homes. True, a general Community House as has been planned, would be a grand investment for any town but when you have not got one, why grumble at the next best hing that will answer the same purpose, until the town considers that it is in financial shape to build one. We have visited the Legion rooms on several occasions when they were crowded with young folks, and never witnessed any unseemly action to condemn.

Religious Conference At Philipsburg Last Week Attended By Big Crowd

Philipsburg Nov. 15.—The first Dickinson Extension School of Religious Education held in the Trinity Methodist church, this city, last week is a matter of history, having closed its session Saturday night at 9:30. The commencement exercises at the close of the last lecture period was dignified and impressive. The principal address was delivered by Dr. E. A. Pyles, of the faculty and superintendent of the Williamsport district in which he emphasized service and self-sacrifice which should follow preparation and necessary to the attainment of lofty character. The attendance was good, a number of the registrants bringing their friends to witness the closing exercises.

Rev. W. T. Pyles, dean of the school, representing the faculty, expressed himself as highly pleased with both the attendance and character of the work that was done here. A similar school will likely be conducted here next year, when it is expected that the number of registrations will be doubled.

Philipsburg led in number of registrations with eighty, the Munson charge was second with 29 and Morrisdale followed closely as third with twenty-seven. The three churches of Clearfield, also Shawville, Wallaceton, Houtzdale and Osceola Mills were represented in the school.

There were sixty-seven registrants who received certificates of credit for work done in the school during the week. Dean Pyles had each instructor call the names of the credit students, who came forward and received their certificates amid the applause of the assembly. The names of the credit students follow: Primary Methods in the Church School—Marion Bailey, Clarice Flegal, Myra Flegal, Mrs Esther Gilbert, Nell A Holton, Eva E Hoover, Helen Jones, Mrs Charles McGirk, Mrs S W McLarren, Marie Moyer, Sara Smith, Emily Gill, Mabel Pelton, Matilda J Goss, Mrs Edward George, Miss Louise Goss. Junior League Methods—Helen Gray, Juliette Hall, Dorothy Harpster, Mabel Johns, Linda Lienhart, Alice Merrow, Agnes Montgomery, Hazel Northamer, Mrs George Peters, Mrs F L Sheriff, Keturah Smiles, Louise Smiles, Jean Utts, Helen Houck, Ada Liddle and Margaret Aldstadt. Teen Age—Grace Ulrich, Gladys G Ashcroft, Mrs Dorothy Crust, Catherine Hess, Thelma Nixon, Evelyn M Reed, Elizabeth Foulke, Monema Ball, Sara Bailey, Mary Hill, Olivia M Poorman, Thelma Wiye, Alletta Boyer Mary Frantz, Dorothy Flegal, Edna Hoover, Mrs Flora Jones, Verdena Bloom. Bible—Mrs Lewis Chase, Rachael Forshey, Mary Lucas, Mr Herbert Jury, Edna Miller, H D Ross Helen Shugart. Recreational Leadership—Margaret Milson, Katharine Shugart, Ethel Witchey, Sarah Harper, Nora Bailey, Janet Forcey, Mrs H G Jones, Joseph Jones, Edith Mallin, Church Administration—Rev E. L Ritzman.

The following resolution was adopted by the faculty and out-of-town members of the school:

Whereas, Trinity church, Philipsburg, has given the use of their church plant to this our one week School of Religious Education, without which this school would have been improbable in this center.

Whereas, They gave to the school a reception the literary characteristics were marked by Mrs. William Prosser and Mrs. Helen Oyler Truitt also refreshments furnished.

Whereas, Dr. R. S. Oyler, pastor of Trinity church, who has been our registrar, and gave great assistance in the promotion of the school, especially in going to individual Sunday schools and presenting the work.

Therefore, Be it Resolved, That we give to these persons a rising vote of thanks for their labor and kindness.

WHY WOMEN GET DESPONDENT

Are not women naturally as light-hearted, brave and hopeful as men? Yes, certainly, but a woman's organism is essentially different from a man's—more delicate, more sensitive and more exacting. Women in delicate health are more dependent, more nervous, more irritable and more despondent. When a woman developes nervousness, sleeplessness, backaches headaches, dragging down pains and melancholia she should lose no time in giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetables Compound a fair trial, as it will quickly dispel such trouble. This root and herb medicine contains no drugs and has been the standby of American womanhood for nearly fifty years.

THE VOICE WITH THE SMILE

When one of Clearfield's 8 Bell telephone operators answers your call, she says "Number, please?"

She says it with the pleasant rising inflection which expresses better than words her desire to serve you.

These 8 Clearfield young women were chosen for their ability and intelligence.

They were trained to be quick, careful and accurate.

They have all of these qualities.

And in addition, they have "the voice with the smile."

It's not just a part of their "stock in trade."

The desire to serve their neighbors and friends is in their very nature.

So they say "Number, please?"

That little word "please" takes a lot of time when the thousands of calls every day are considered.

But it's worth all the time it takes.

For these young women know that courtesy pays.

Big Program For Congress Framed By Pres. Harding

PLANS TO PUSH CONGRESS, THEN GIVE THE COUNTRY A LONG REST

By LAURENCE M. BENEDICT.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Nov. 15.—Congress, when it comes back for the special session scheduled to start Nov. 20, or the regular session in December, will have a swift, hard grind ahead, if it is to make good on the program being laid out for it by President Harding.

If it makes good, its reward will come next March 4, with the announcement that Congress can go home on that day and remain away from Washington until the start of the regular session in December, 1923—a vacation of nine months.

If the program is carried out, the country next summer will have a real rest from the national legislative body, for virtualy the first time since before the war. President Harding is most anxious that this "rest" be given. He believes the country is tired of having Congress in almost continuous session.

But Congress will have to "cut out the bunk" and get strictly down to business if it is to earn the vacation. There is plenty of room for doubting that all the important legislation on the President's program can be disposed of by March 4. There are the big appropriation measures, which must be passed. They alone could easily take up all the time unless Congress acts on unusual speed.

Next in importance, from the White House viewpoint, comes the ship subsidy bill. President Harding, who considers the subsidy the most important piece of domestic legislation thus far advanced by the administration, is believed to be in a mood to insist that definite and final action on the measure be taken at the next session. If the President demands final consideration of the subsidy, the plans for a Congressional vacation may go on the rocks right there. It is believed now that the shipping bill could be passed in the House, under a special rule limiting debate and prohibiting amendments, but in the Senate its opponents could hold up the measure for months if they were of the mind to do so. And indications are they are of that mind.

The Railroad Legislation.

Then there is the question of revising the Esch-Cummins act. President Harding notified Congress this summer that he would expect legislation this winter safeguarding the country against a recurrence of the big railroad strike. The problem wouldn't be so big if the White House and administration forces were in harmony over what remedial legislation should be passed. But they are, apparently, as far apart as the poles.

The big point of difference is the Railroad Labor Board. President Harding wants the board retained, moved from Chicago to Washington and given more power. Most Senators and House members want the board abolished, believing its creation was a blunder.

Besides this, there will be strong and organized demand for a general revision of the entire transportation act. The farm bloc will drive for lower freight rates and will seek any kind of legisation that would accomplish that. They may wind up by demanding an entire new valuation of the railroads, which bloc leaders charge are now overvalued by mil-

ANTI-STRIKE LAWS WILL BE PRESSED BY SENATOR CUMMINS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—An anti-strike bill will be introduced in the House very soon after the reconvening of Congress on November 20, Senator Cummins let it be known today. Senator Cummins is chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission Committe and will be insistent on this bill being the keystone of the industrial legislatum program and he will urge President Harding to get behind the move. Republican members of Congress profess to being amazed at the suggestion of Senator Cummins, declaring it is the poorest time for such a proposal to come before the country and in view of the fact that there is so little machinery set up to protect the rights of labor there is little likelihood of it meeting with approval.

GOVERNOR VISITS DOROTHY GORDON IN INSANE ASYLUM

Boston, Mass., Nov. 155.—Governor Alvin T. Fuller, acting governor of Massachusetts in the absence of Governor Cox, today visited the McClain Insane Hospital at Waverly where Dorothy Gordon, an heiress, is alleged to have been committed six months ago on trumped up charges of insanity. Fuller came on a mission of inspection and for the purpose of investigating the charges being made by the uncle of the girl that she was illegally committeed and is being held illegally. The visit of the Lieutenant Governor is believed to be the first step in a rigid investigation of the institution and the now celebrated case and the removal of William F. Jardine the girl's guardian who is responsible for her being there.

The girl was visited today by her Uncle John Gardiner who is making the attempt to free her and who has started removal proceedings against the guardian.

RETURN JUDGES ARE WAITING ON CENTRE CO. TO WAKE UP

Backwoods District Has Appointed No Deserving Republican to Perform Arduous Duties.

ALL OTHERS HERE

The Congressional and Senatorial Return Judges from the 23d Congressional and 34th Senatorial District were scheduled to meet in Clearfield yesterday for the purpose of computing the Congressional and Senatorial votes cast at the recent election. When 12 o'clock came the representatives of Clearfield, Cameron and McKean counties were on hand ready to discharge their duties, but nobody from Centre put in an appearance and the judges present were compelled to mark time until it was possible to penetrate Centre county's backwoods and get the ear of authority to see what the trouble was. That was no easy job either.

Telephones Unknown.

County officials over in Centre have become so economical that they have done away with telephones in the Court House, official communication now being carried on with the outside world by "word of mouth," each fellow passing the news or order along to his neighbor by means of his leather lungs.

One Official Awake.

Prothonotary Ralston and Commissioners' Clerk Norris finally got their heads together and bribed the telephone exchange girl at Bellefonte to send a messenger to the Court House for some one in authority who could have Centre county's lapse repaired. A boy was sent up to the temple of justice and soon reported back that he had found Prothonotary Roy Wilkinson to be the only person awake at the Court House and he said he would come to the phone if he could find somebody to stay in the office to keep the flies off the slumbering deputy. He was told Roy would do and pretty soon Wilkinson was at the other end of the phone.

He was asked if Centre county officials realized that county was a part of Pennsylvania and was governed by its laws, election and otherwise. Roy yawningly acknowledged that he really believed it was, but would make sure by asking Judge Quigley, as "Quig" ought to know.

The Clearfield end of the conversation was not so sure of that, but instructed the Prothonotary to have Judge Quigley look into the matter and if he found that Centre county was really part and parcel of this grand old Keystone Commonwealth and amenable to her laws, to have him kindly appoint a "deserving" Republican as Return Judge and have him come to Clearfield and assist in computing the Congressional and Senatorial votes in the two districts in order that Bill Swoope and his cousin Bill Betts might be officially proclaimed the winners for Congress and State Senate respectively.

Judge Quigley is evidently not sure of his geography yet, because the local officials are still looking in vain for that Centre county Return Judge. It is too darn bad, too; because those Centre county Republicans (and Democrats, too) are all so hungry for office—any "old offis," at that.

"RESOURCEFUL," TO SAY THE LEAST, WAS THIS CROWD OF FELLOWS WHO STOLE TO BUILD UP THEIR FLIVVER

A bunch of young men from the Houtzdale region lined up before Judge Bell Monday on their separate pleas of guilty to larceny charges. The bunch centered around Mike Andrejko, who is somewhat of an amateur electrician. They were getting away with it in fine style, too, according to their own stories, until Corporal Billy Novick of the State Police horned in on their operations. Billy says Andrejko is a sort of electrical wizard, but the gang which operated with and for him might safely be styled "electrical buzzards" because they scavengered and salvaged everything in the electrical line within the scope of their migrations about the community.

The gang was made up of Andrejko, Thorval Munson, Julius Sklar, Thomas Banas, Casmir Emala, William L. Corre and Michael A. Ernest. They possessed an old Ford and while out driving one day smashed a wheel.

Neighbor Sam Gallagher had a new Henry he was not using at the time so the committee on spare parts and things swooped down on Sam's garage and "borrowed" one of the wheels off his Ford. Sam got mad about it, too. They also took a pump along to supply air when same ran low. A couple of storage batteries from a locomotive belonging to the Red Top Coal Company were also sacrificed on the altar of Andrejko's electrical genius, as was an Exide battery from a Hudson car belonging to C. W. Isenberg.

After hearing the stories of the young men and the plea of their attorney John B. McGrath, Esq., Judge Bell gave the gang a good lecture, imposed a $50 fine on each, directed the restoration of the stolen property and suspended further sentence during good behavior.

NATIONAL CHAIRMAN OF RED CROSS PUTS PEP INTO CAMPAIGN

Makes Statement to the 200,000 Workers Who Have Started to Enroll Members Everywhere.

REVIEWS ITS WORK

Washington, D. C. Nov. 15.—In a message to the 200,000 men and women who have just started their task of enrolling "every American everywhere" on the roster of the American Red Cross, Judge John Barton Payne, Chairman of that organization, states:

"The Red Cross is a mighty army of red blooded American men and women, banded together to wage incessant battle against disease, disaster and suffering.

"You are the recruiting officers for this army. As such it is both your duty and privilege to give to every American the opportunity to consecrate himself anew to service under the banner of the Red Cross.

"We are now engaged in the stupendous task of relieving the misery of more than half a million men, women and children who have been driven out of Asia Minor and Eastern Thrace by the Greco-Turkish war. When this great international disaster came, the eyes of the American people turned as with one accord to American Red Cross as the agency through which they would send succor to the suffering.

"There was never a moment's doubt as to what organization would be called upon to render aid. The Red Cross is proud that it could and did answer "Read" when the emergency call came.

"From now until Thanksgiving Day you are to call the roll among your neighbors and friends, and they too, will be proud to answer "Read." By their affirmative answer to the Roll Call they will be given their support to the "Greatest Mother in the World' they will be pledging their allegiance once more to the greatest army of mercy in the history of humanity.

"The disaster in the Near East is only one of the many grim tragedies which the Red Cross is meeting. Others are taking place every day of the year, and any day may be just around the corner from your own homes. They may be less dramatic; they may not find a place on the front pages of your newspapers, but they are none the less worthy of our service.

"The Red Cross, as the great volunteer emergency army, never halts; never sleeps; never takes a vacation. Its work of mercy goes on night and day in every village, town and city of the country. It is your organization always ready for service, and always at the call of humanity.

With your aid let us make the response to this Roll Call unanimous."

Lloyd George's Test Comes At Polls Today

By J. W. T. MASON
(Written for the United Press.)

Voting began this morning in Great Britain for re-election of a new House of Commons. The polls will close at 8 p. m. and the result will be known some time tomorrow. The balloting is secret.

The votes will be counted in each constituency immediately after the closing of the polls and the successful candidates will be named to the waiting crowds. It is the British custom for all candidates in each constituency to hear the results together and for the unsuccessful ones personally to congratulate the victor.

There will be 615 seats in the new Commons. This is 96 less than in the old parliament, due to the termination of the south of Ireland representation, following the establishment of the Irish Free State. The protestant north of Ireland, however, will still be represented in the Commons because the Ulstermen have refused to abandon their intimate imperial relationship. North Ireland has 13 constituencies, England has 492, Scotland 74 and Wales 36.

Fifty-seven seats, including Lloyd George's, are not being contested. For the remaining 558 seats there are 1,266 candidates in the field. They are divided into six groups: Conservatives, or Bonar Law Unionists; National Liberals, or Lloyd George's party; Independent Liberals or Asquith's party; Labor party, or moderate wing of the workingmen; Independent Labor party, or radical working class supporters; Independents, embracing all who hold allegiance to none of the foregoing.

About thirty women are among the candidates, headed by Lady Astor, and including Lay Wintringham, Lady Cooper, Lady Howard Stepney, and Mrs. Arthur Boutchier, the actress.

Million More Voters.

The election is being fought on a

BONAR LAW APPEARS CERTAIN TO WIN THE ELECTIONS TODAY

London, England, Nov. 15.—Bonar Law appeared to be certain of victory today after five hours of voting in the metropolitan district and four houses in the outlying districts of the country. It is believed sure that the new Premier will have a majority in the house of commons. Although foggy weather predominates, unless all signs fail the full returns will show the Conservative with a lead of at least ten seats. The present makeup is as follows: Conservative 42; Asquith Liberals 6, Lloyd George Liberals 4; Labor 4, Irish Nationalists 1.

FRESH EARTHQUAKES CONTINUE TO TAKE TOLL IN SO. AMERICA

Santiago, Chile, Nov. 15.—Twelve prisoners being used as laborers to clear away the debris after the quake of last Saturday were killed today and a squad of soldiers buried when the walls collapsed under a fresh series of earth tremors which were felt throughout the entire Capiapo region of Chile today. The prisoners and soldiers were searching among the ruins for bodies when the quake of today occurred. The falling walls completely covered the workmen and soldiers and probably all were killed. No doubt todays' tremors resulted in many deaths in other nearby localities with which there is no method of communication as yet

ISMUD PASHA IN PARIS

Paris, France, Nov. 15.—Ismud Pasha, Turkish envoy from the Angora government arrived in Paris today. He will have a meeting with Premier Poncaire late this afternoon but it will be only the purpose of getting acquainted and it is not believed that any official business will be discussed.

CHANCELLOR WIRTH FINISHED AS HEAD OF GERMAN AFFAIRS

Berlin, Nov. 15.—That the German reparation offers and proposals are nullified by the fall of the Wirth cabinet which took place yesterday is the belief of experts here. Chancellor Wirth is finished politically and the country is seeking a more active man to fill the place. The cabinet members will remain at their posts until a new cabinet is formed.

SISTER OF TERRY MacSWINEY NOW ON A HUNGER STRIKE

Dublin, Ireland, Nov. 155.—Mary McSweeney, sister of Terry McSweeney, Mord Mayor of Cork, who died on a hunger strike to make of himself a martyr to Irish freedom, is now on the twelfth day of her hunger strike after having been thrown into prison at Mount Joy. She is reported to be unable to speak and in a serious condition.

NEWBERRY'S OFFICE DENIES HE WILL QUIT SENATORSHIP

Washington, D. C. Nov. 15.—Denial was made at the office of Senator Newberry today that the Michigan senator expects to resign his office in the near future as was reported to several newspapers yesterday.

HARDING'S VIEWS ON THE BONUS NOT CHANGED BY VOTES

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—President Harding, although the bonus forces won several votes in the recent election and several anti-bonus officials were defeated on that issue, has let it be known that his views have not changed and that the results of the election will not influence his course in the future. He directed a spokesman today to make this plain.

Mrs. Greenlee has returned to her home at Toppinish, Wash., after an extended visit in Clearfield.

BODY OF DUBOIS CIVIL WAR VETERAN FOUND ON HIGHWAY

DuBois, Nov. 15.—So far as meagre details obtainable are concerned, the finding of the lifeless remains of A. J. Hetrick, a well known Civil War veteran of DuBois, along a road outside of Brookville, there is an element of mystery prevailing that may require an investigation to solve. The remains of Mr. Hetrick were discovered late yesterday afternoon on a road leading from Brookville, and so far as relatives were advised late last night the cause of his death is not known.

Mr. Hetrick makes his home with his daughter, Mrs. Hayes Price, of East Weber avenue, and a few days ago stated that he was going to make a trip to Brookville, partly on business and partly on pleasure. Yesterday morning Mr. Hetrick arose, dressed himself and left the house without saying a word to his relatives. It was surmised that he had gone to Brookville, but nothing was known of his whereabouts until the word came of his sudden death.

CRAZY KID STUNT SAY OFFICIALS OF CONKLIN MARRAGE

Binghamton, Nov. 14.—"A crazy kid stunt" is the way Humane Officer Koerbel characterized the marriage of John H. Cregier, seventeen, to his sister, Elizabeth, nineteen. The marriage was performed on November 7 by the Rev. E. R. Evans, of Conklin. There will be no prosecution, Koerbel said.

The couple separated after the marriage and the girl returned to New York, the boy remaining here.

Immediate steps will be taken, the officer said, to have the marriage annulled.

Cregier gave his address at Lawton avenue, this city, which is the home of Miss Elsie Teeple, who brought the boy up since the death of his mother fourteen years ago.

He was twenty-two, the boy swore and gave his occupation as a shipping clerk.

The girl gave her name as Elizabeth M. Hafner, the name of her adopted father in New York City.

BROTHER TESTIFIES AGAINST BROTHER IN MURDER TRIAL

Pittsburg, Nov. 15.—Speaking in a low voice, his lips twitching at times, William C. Johnson of Trotter, Fayette county, today testified in court against his brother Elmer Johnson, accused of participating in the holding up of a garage on Frankstown Road with two other men at which time the garage proprietor was shot and killed. He testified that Elmer came home after the shooting and told of how he and two other men had killed a man in a garage in Pittsburg.

Chicago, Ill, Nov. 15.—A billion dollar merger of the big five packing concerns of the country, Morris, Swift Cudahy, Armour, Wilson have been discussed by the heads of this corporation and is being seriously considered as a means to eliminating costly competition and cutting down the cost of each maintaing distributing centers throughout the whole world. A committee has been named to confer with Secretary Wallace of the Agricultural Department, Attorney General Dougherty and the Federal Trade Commission to learn the attitude of the government towards such a merger. The assets of the five concerns are given as $1.097.107,456 and the combined capital is $394,832,000.

INTERRUPT DEBATING SOCIETY OF "BRIMSTONE CORNER" IN MIDST OF DISCUSSION ON EINSTEIN THEORY

"Brimstone Corner" was the scene of a police raid late last night which resulted in quite a bit of commotion but the "captains of Jacks and Kings" were tipped off by said commotion and the Argus-eyed lookout and the officers of the law had to be content with a "water haul."

The police have been watching for some time a second floor room near the end of the Second street bridge and last night their "plainclothes" watchman informed them a game was in progress. A descent was made on the place and several nooks and crannies looked into before the alleged "poker store" was reached.

When the alleged gaming place was finally reached an octette of "near scientists" were found grouped about a green baize-covered table. But not a card, chip or other evidence of gambling was in sight while the gang was engaged in an animated discussion of the Einstein theory, one side contending that the photographic plates recently made of the recent solar ecclipse at Wollal, Australia, would show Prof. Einstein and his theory to be right, while the other fellows were equally as positive that they would show the Professor to be talking through his chapeau.

Wouldn't that jar you?

CARVING SETS

When the time comes that you sit down to carve the Thanksgiving turkey, will you do it with ease or will you have to exert every atom of strength to carve the national bird simply because your carving knife is so dull that you can't make it go through?

With one of the sets that we are showing you'll have a knife that will carve easily and you'll really enjoy that task that you usually try to get out of.

Drop in and see the different styles of the sets. There are pearl handled sets, stag handled sets and ivory handled sets. Then there are silver handled sets.

You'll be surprised at how little you will have to pay for them.

lions of dollars. The bloc will also try to repeal the section giving the Interstate Commerce Commission the power to fix freight rates on commerce within the States.

Unless administration leaders succeed in spreading oil on the troubled waters, the attempt to enact new industrial legislation will drag debate out for weeks and send glimmering the chances for a get-away March 4.

Soldier and Farm Blocs.

Besides the legislation the administration wants Congress to tackle, there will be movements from every direction to further clog the legislative wheels. The farm bloc will be trying to extend the credit facilities for farmers. The soldier bloc will be demanding action on the legislative proposals put forth by the American Legion convention at New Orleans. The farm bloc again, with the Democrats from the solid South, will push a new drive for acceptance of the Ford offer for Muscle Shoals. The latter is a losing fight and for that reason will take up even more time than otherwise.

In addition to all of this, many individual Senators and Congressmen will be seeking to get some of their "pet" legislative theories enacted into law before the proposed long recess.

It looks like more than an even bet that next summer will find Congress doing business at the old stand, as usual.

new register, which adds nearly a million voters to the number entitled to vote at the last previous election, in 1918. Eight million women will cast their ballots today for their second parliamentary election since their enfranchisement. The total number of persons entitled to vote approximates 22,000,000. At the 1918 election, only fifty per cent. of the registered voters went to the polls. This was largely due to the fact that 106 constituencies were uncontested.

The chief interest in today's contest, apart from the effort of the Conservatives to secure an absolute majority over all other parties, is in the showing that will be made by the Labor Party. Membership in British trades unions declined last year from 8,500,000 to 6,800,000, due partly to unemployment and partly to desertions by women workers.

There were 76 labor members in the last parliament. The labor leaders hope to secure 200 seats at today's elections and they will be greatly disappointed if they don't have at least 150. Should the number be less than 100, the result will mean a violent turn on the part of the British voters against the radical platform of the laborites. If labor approximates 200 victories, probably nothing can prevent a labor government coming into power at the next following election.

Lloyd George's partisans are not expected to be numerous in the new House of Commons. If the Lloyd George liberals hold the balance of power, it will be surprising. To regain his political prestige Lloyd George will probably have to form an amalgamation with another party. Whether he will unite with the Asquith Liberals or with the C tives he doubtless doesn't know yet himself.

CHARGED WITH STEALING FROM FREIGHT CARS

Information was made before 'Squire Joseph F. John yesterday by a New York Central detective against John Doll and Joe King, two young men who reside at Munson, charging them with stealing merchandise from freight cars. The alleged crimes were committed in August and October last, the cars broken into being left on the siding at Munson station.

Constable T. B. Reilley arrested both young men yesterday afternoon and each gave bail for December court.

DRINK LOTS OF MILK BUT BE SURE IT'S SAFE

When you take the chances of drinking milk that isn't safe you overcome all the good things that you do when you drink milk as a body builder. For if you should, all your system will get some of the deadly germs that might lurk in milk that isn't safe, you won't get the good from the elements that are in the milk.

But when you drink plenty of milk and milk that has gone through the pasteurization process, you are sure that you will have all the nutriment in the milk plus the assurance that the milk is absolutely safe.

Therefore be sure the milk you drink is safe milk.

Recent statistics of the federal department of labor show that this is the way the average man's dollar is spent: 38.2 cents on food, 13.5 cents for housing, 16.6 cents for clothing, 5.1 cents for furniture, 5.3 cents fuel, recreation and all other expenditures, 21.3 cents.

Strange things are found in news these days. We noticed in Tuesday's Altoona Tribune an article which was headed "Trolley Car Runs Into Brewery Team." What do you suppose a brewery team would be doing on the road these days—hauling flowers for Andy Volstead's funeral, nebbe.

State Chairman Harry W. Baker appears to have our Republican brethren "hypped." They are talking of paying him a salary of $10,000 per year to remain as State Chairman. Just think what a cinch that would be. Imagine how soft it would be to pull down $10,000 per year for keeping Pennsylvania in the Republican column. This fall's election sure must have thrown a man's size scare into even Pennsylvania Repubs.

Approximately $1,015,000,000 was invested in foreign countries by American citizens during the period of the Government's fiscal year ended June 30, 1922, according to an official compilation by the Department of Commerce.

American dollars are helping finance and reconstruct private industry and governments in nearly every section of the world. They are building tramways in Europe, railroads in China and South America, docks and cotton mills in France and water works systems in South Africa.

The Commerce Department's report represents the total of all loans offered and sold publicly in the United States by foreign governments and private industrial and commercial organizations with foreign citizenship. It shows that nearly ever large city of the world is being financed to greater or less extent by the savings of American investors. Among the cities whose bonds are held by Americans are Paris, Montreal, Berne, Prague, Vienna and Rio de Janeiro.

Prior to the World War the total of foreign capital invested in the United States was greater than American capital invested abroad Early in 1915 American securities owned in Europe began flowing to the United States in payment for heavy purchases of war materials. These were securities issued to build mines, railroads, and great industrial corporations of the West. They were purchased in the period of expansion that began with 1890. Before the United States entered the war almost all of these securities had been bought back by America. Then American dollars in large quantities began flowing abroad for investment.

In 1916 approximately $397,000,000 was invested abroad and in 1919 about $726,000,000. The following year the total was $555,000,000 and in 1921 it grew to $618,000,000.

Rate of investment in the pre-war period is indicated by 1905, when $148,000,000 went abroad.

The Bureau of Mines announces that tests conducted at Bruceton, Pa., indicate the possibility of using wireless waves to communicate with entombed miners.

Thes uccessful working out of a practical method of communication will undoubtedly result in the saving of many livevs following fires and explosions, experts declare.

Many entrapped miners would have been saved in previous disasters, if the rescuers couid have learned quickly the exact location of the men and thec ondition of their imprisonment.

Tests were conducted at the bureau's experimental coal mines at Bruceton in co-operation with the Westinghous Electric and Maufacturing company's KDKA station at Pittsburgh. Preliminary results indicate that electro-magnetic waves may be made to travel through solid strata.

In the Bruceton experimsnts, signals were heard distinctly through fifty feet o coal strata Longer wave lengths are to be used in more advanced experiments, and it is expected that they will be made to travel much greater distances. They suffer less absorption than short waves.

Mine telephones are already in use, but the system is usually deranged by the fire or explosion which traps the miners and, therefore, are seldom useful following disasters.

The preliminary experiments consisted first in receiving signals from without the mine by means of a receiver located inside the mine, then both sending and receiving through strata.

It was found that with a receiving instrument set at a point 100 feet underground, signals from the KDKA station at East Pittsburgh could be heard distinctly. The distance is eighteen miles.

Husband Locked Wife In Room Without Food And Water For Three Days

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 15.—Emaciated and unable to walk withotu assistance, Mrs. Martha Lockard, aged 47, was helped into the court room today to attend the preliminary hearing against her husband who was arrested on charge of the inhuman society. It is alleged that Fred Lockard, her husband, locked her in a room for three days without food and water and at the end of that time passed in a can of sardines, two crackers and some water. Lockard admitted this charge but denied that his cruel treatment was for the purpose of forcing his wife to leave him so he could obtain a divorce and marry another woman.

EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

Tonight, in Trinity church, the opening meeting of the intense revival campaign will inaugurate the special efforts in evangelism by that church. Thursday and Friday nights of this week will be devoted to revival. The meeting is expected to take full swing with Sunday. On that day a Three Church Visitation has been arranged for Methodist men. The first place will be at Eleventh Street, the men of West Side and Trinity going out to that church at three o'clock. There will be a program of four stirring S's—singing, supplications, speeches and singing. Next Sunday being Holy Communion, the meetings of this week will be cumulative. The revival work is the theme of Trinity Methodists, and their hope and desire.

Immediately after the evening service, the Sunday School Board meets and a special meeting of the official board is called by the pastor for one urgent matter, associated with the meetings.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common garden Sage and Sulphur Makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and youthful at once

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays, we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair; taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

On every side indications that business and industry are rapidly ascending the grade continue to multiply. For the first time in two years—and for the fifth time in the history of the country—railroads have moved in a single week more than 1,000,000 freight cars loaded with commodities. But for shortage of cars the haulage would be still greater.

Another symptom of industrial prosperity is the fact that unemployment has so far decreased that in certain sections there is an actual shortage both of skilled and unskilled workers, and the Department of Labor is of opinion that the demands of employers in this respect will not be fully met till the first part of next year.

A further proof and guarantee of good times is that the building boom, which has been so phenomenally developed during several months past, still continues and promises to last throughout the winter. There has been practically no seasonal decline such as generally makes itself felt at this time of the year, and all the indications are that in this particular branch of work the record already established during 1922 will be equaled or even exceeded in 1923.

Another and final test is found in the automobile industry. Manufacturers of automobiles have advised the national automobile chamber of commerce that the demand for their output is surprising for this season, and a production record of 2,400 000 cars for the year is confidently expected.

These are all encouraging signs of the times, and tend to confirm the belief that the country has entered on an era of well-nigh unexampled prosperity.

Some of the aristocratic institutions of learning in the East have lately been considering the fellow who works his way through college, with a slightly sneering frown.

Commend us to the method at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio. The five hundred boys and girls there are equally exclusive. You can't go to Antioch unless you do work. Five weeks of labor and five weeks of study—that's the program laid down for themselves by the students.

Every freshman has his expense budget audited by a faculty member, and he is put in touch with the sort of work he wants, and that will make enough to see him through. Some students have arrived at Antioch with $100, and no prospects of any more coming except through their own efforts.

But that didn't mean they were cut by the Greeks and snubbed by the co-eds. Everybody at Antioch is working and studying. Which reminds us to say that whether at Antioch or right here at home, that's what we all ought to be doing—carpenters, insurance men, grocers, bankers and teachers—studying along with our work, and working along with our study Education is just fairly started when a man or woman leaves college. Students at Antioch are fairly on the way to realizing this.

People who fail to put up mail boxes on their houses will not be given carrier mail service, the postoffice department recently warned. Mail slots in the doors are held just as desirable, but some provision for receiving the mail must be made.

Just have a look at your patient postman the next time his regular step is heard on your porch. He has a plentiful load. He must carry it in all weather, and he must be prompt in completing his round.

Not an enviable job, and not overpaid. The Christmas season now approaching means the mailman's hardest work of all the year. How many times have you heard your carrier complain?

Christmas spirit? Why, not all the dreary trudging in the world can take it out of those fellows. They smile when they hand in the mysterious package which bears the seal: "Not to be opened till Christmas." They bother with scribbled writing, and they hustle to see that none of Santa's parcels are delayed.

It is by no means too early to be talking about the Christmas rush. And it is high time we all showed a little advance Christmas spirit by making it as easy as possible for the mailman, by seeing to it that we have a proper place to receive the mail he brings.

WILL OBSERVE TUBERCULOSIS DAY DEC. 3rd.

Harrisburg, Nov. 15.—Tuberculosis day will be observed in the churches December 3 and in the schools December 8 as features of the Christmas Seal sale to fight the White Plague. The plan is set forth by John S. Fisher, Pennsylvania chairman for the Christmas Seal sale, today in the following statement:

"In connection with the Fifteenth Annual Sale of Christmas Seals, it is suggested that Tuberculosis Day be observed in the churches on Sunday, Dec. 3rd, and in the schools on Friday, Dec. 8th. All church and educational workers are vitally interested in the physical, as well as in the intellectual, moral and spiritual well being of our people. It is therefore, appropriate that church and school put forth their best efforts in conserving the health of our citizens. Inasmuch as the schools and Sunday schools deal with the welfare of the young people, they furnish an inviting field in the war against tuberculosis.

"The Christmas Seal has become a vital factor in bringing better health and longer life to the people of Pennsylvania. It is the means of preventing tuberculosis and of restoring to health those who have fallen victims to its ravages. The sale and use of the Seals is, therefore, more than a pretty Christmas custom

"We confidently put the case before the pastors, Sunday school superintendents and workers and teachers in our public schools. We earnestly solicit your help and ask you to emphasize on the days above designated the dangers and treatment of tuberculosis to the end that health may be improved and life prolonged, and particularly the part which the Christmas Seal plays in this great effort."

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Mrs. C. S. Russell has returned home from a three week's visit in New York, Philadelphia and Chester county. She was accompanied by Mrs Joseph H. Patton, who will be her guest for a few days.

Frank Strunk, who has been residing in Philadelphia for several years past, is home for a visit with home folks.

Among the marriage licenses issued in Pennsylvania in Cumberland Md., on Monday it will be noticed that such a paper was granted to Lee Robert Patterson, of Curwensville and Miss Helen Broska, of Punxsutawney.

P. E Smith has purchased from the B. R. & P. railroad several hundred tons of coal which was dumped from the cars in wreck which occurred at Bridgeport a few weeks ago

There will be a parlor meeting of the Friends Society held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodside South Walnut street, on Friday evening next. Dr. Jenner and a Mr. Thompson, both of Baltimore will be present and address the meeting. All members of the Friends Society and those who are interested in that sect, are cordially invited to be present. Quarterly meeting will be held at Grampian on Sunday afternoon.

Buck deer are numerous in the woods and on the mountain, some rabbit hunters claim. Bears plentiful before the season opened, have suddenly grown scarce. Frank Harley, wife and baby, have out on a hunting camp on Saturday and remained over Sunday. During the time spent there he saw and counted fourteen deer, within half an hour's walk from the camp.

From the North American yesterday we glean this pleasing item "The people of the Clearfield section are gratified over the fact that their local hospital was included in the list of hospitals throughout the United States worthy of special mention as "giving the best of scientific care to their patients." The report was filed at the American college of Surgeons in session in Boston.

The many Curwensville friends of Miss Ruth Thompson were greatly surprised to learn of her marriage which took place last Friday, at the Presbyterian church, Williamsport They wish her good luck all thru her married life.

Plans are being worked out for the holding of a week's educational convevntion in Curwensville, commencing sometime in December and in the Opera House. The American Legion will co-operate with Prof. Norris and the entire school faculty in facilitating this movement and making it a great success. A program will be prepared which not only will be of interest to those who take a part but to every citizen of the town and vicinity. The Progress will have more to say on this subject at a later date

Mr. William Bartelle is wearing a smile on his face almost as large as a half moon, and all because the Stork left at his home on corner of Meadow and Walnut street on Sunday night a fine little daughter.

William Harley, of Clearfield, and one of the hunters that the mountain deer is afraid to cross his path, when he is on the trail, was a Curwensville visitor yesterday. If there is any one man in this county that can shoot a buck ever season that fellow is "Bridle" Harley.

There are of many of Curwensville's boys and girls wandering about the streets these evenings with no place to go in particular, demonstrates the fact more clearly than ever that the town is in need of Community House and such a structure as was talked of being built a year or so ago. The scheme was broached by the Business Mens' Association at that time, but for want of the proper financial encouragement the matter was let go by the board. It is true that the American Legion rooms are left open to the young folks nearly every night in the week, where they are at liberty to gather for social amusements, but a large number of parents object to their sons and daughters congregating there, on account of the rooms being utilized for dancing purposes one or two nights a week. In justice to the Legion boys it can be truthfully said that they will not permit any entertainment in their rooms which are immoral or any thing like it, and the boys and girls would be just as safe there as in their own homes. True, a general Community House as has been planned, would be a grand investment for any town but when you have not got one, why grumble at the next best hing that will answer the same purpose, until the town considers that it is in financial shape to build one. We have visited the Legion rooms on several occasions when they were crowded with young folks, and never witnessed any unseemly action to condemn.

Religious Conference At Philipsburg Last Week Attended By Big Crowd

Philipsburg Nov. 15.—The first Dickinson Extension School of Religious Education held in the Trinity Methodist church, this city, last week is a matter of history, having closed its session Saturday night at 9:30. The commencement exercises at the close of the last lecture period was dignified and impressive. The principal address was delivered by Dr. E. A. Pyles, of the faculty and superintendent of the Williamsport district in which he emphasized service and self-sacrifice which should follow preparation and necessary to the attainment of lofty character. The attendance was good, a number of the registrants bringing their friends to witness the closing exercises.

Rev. W. T. Pyles, dean of the school, representing the faculty, expressed himself as highly pleased with both the attendance and character of the work that was done here. A similar school will likely be conducted here next year, when it is expected that the number of registrations will be doubled.

Philipsburg led in number of registrations with eighty, the Munson charge was second with 29 and Morrisdale followed closely as third with twenty-seven. The three churches of Clearfield, also Shawville, Wallaceton, Houtzdale and Osceola Mills were represented in the school.

There were sixty-seven registrants who received certificates of credit for work done in the school during the week. Dean Pyles had each instructor call the names of the credit students, who came forward and received their certificates amid the applause of the assembly. The names of the credit students follow: Primary Methods in the Church School—Marion Bailey, Clarice Flegal, Myra Flegal, Mrs Esther Gilbert, Nell A Holton, Eva E Hoover, Helen Jones, Mrs Charles McGirk, Mrs S W McLarren, Marie Moyer, Sara Smith, Emily Gill, Mabel Pelton, Matilda J Goss, Mrs Edward George, Miss Louise Goss. Junior League Methods—Helen Gray, Juliette Hall, Dorothy Harpster, Mabel Johns, Linda Lienhart, Alice Merrow, Agnes Montgomery, Hazel Northamer, Mrs George Peters, Mrs F L Sheriff, Keturah Smiles, Louise Smiles, Jean Utts, Helen Houck, Ada Liddle and Margaret Aldstadt. Teen Age—Grace Ulrich, Gladys G Ashcroft, Mrs Dorothy Crust, Catherine Hess, Thelma Nixon, Evelyn M Reed, Elizabeth Foulke, Monema Ball, Sara Bailey, Mary Hill, Olivia M Poorman, Thelma Wiye, Alletta Boyer Mary Frantz, Dorothy Flegal, Edna Hoover, Mrs Flora Jones, Verdena Bloom. Bible—Mrs Lewis Chase, Rachael Forshey, Mary Lucas, Mr Herbert Jury, Edna Miller, H D Ross Helen Shugart. Recreational Leadership—Margaret Milson, Katharine Shugart, Ethel Witchey, Sarah Harper, Nora Bailey, Janet Forcey, Mrs H G Jones, Joseph Jones, Edith Mallin., Church Administration—Rev E. L Ritzman.

The following resolution was adopted by the faculty and out-of-town members of the school:

Whereas, Trinity church, Philipsburg, has given the use of their church plant to this our one week School of Religious Education, without which this school would have been improbable in this center.

Whereas, They gave to the school a reception the literary characteristics were marked by Mrs. William Prosser and Mrs. Helen Oyler Truitt also refreshments furnished.

Whereas, Dr. R. S. Oyler, pastor of Trinity church, who has been our registrar, and gave great assistance in the promotion of the school, especially in going to individual Sunday schools and presenting the work.

Therefore, Be it Resolved, That we give to these persons a rising vote of thanks for their labor and kindness.

WHY WOMEN GET DESPONDENT

Are not women naturally as light-hearted, brave and hopeful as men? Yes, certainly, but a woman's organism is essentially different from a man's—more delicate, more sensitive and more exacting. Women in delicate health are more dependent, more nervous, more irritable and more despondent. When a woman developes nervousness, sleeplessness, backaches headaches, dragging down pains and melancholia she should lose no time in giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetables Compound a fair trial, as it will quickly dispel such troubles. This root and herb medicine contains no drugs and has been the standby of American womanhood for nearly fifty years.

THE VOICE WITH THE SMILE

When one of Clearfield's 8 Bell telephone operators answers your call, she says "Number, please?"

She says it with the pleasant rising inflection which expresses better than words her desire to serve you.

These 8 Clearfield young women were chosen for their ability and intelligence.

They were trained to be quick, careful and accurate.

They have all of these qualities.

And in addition, they have "the voice with the smile."

It's not just a part of their "stock in trade."

The desire to serve their neighbors and friends is in their very nature.

So they say "Number, please?"

That little word "please" takes a lot of time when the thousands of calls every day are considered.

But it's worth all the time it takes.

For these young women know that courtesy pays.
